

Safety Institute USA HEALTH AND SAFETY

Participant Fact Sheet

COURSE:	Recognizing an Emergency and How to Respond
Course Number	4314RE
Purpose	To provide individuals with basic information on how to recognize barriers to action and overcome any reluctance to act, how to recognize life-threatening emergencies, and help them identify when and how to activate the emergency medical services (EMS) system.
Prerequisites	None
Learning Objectives	Identify barriers to action. Identify signals of life-threatening emergencies Describe how to care for life-threatening emergencies Identify when to call for an ambulance Identify risk factors for heart disease
Length	Varies-Design supports presentations of 30 minutes
Instructor	Preferably taught by a currently authorized Safety Institute USA Instructor in First Aid and CPR
Certification Requirements	None
Certificate Validity	None
Participant Materials	Safety Institute USA _____ booklet

For more information email: classes@safetyinstituteusa.com